A rather sudden change is reported in the situation on the East Prussian frontier.

Following the German attack upon the Russian fortified line, which was defeated, the Germans assumed a strong defensive attitude, resisting the Russian advance towards Allenstein. Yesterday the defensive ceased and the German corps began falling back

The following report was read at resterday's meeting of the Honolulu Ad Club:

Mr. President and members of the Ad

It would probably seem to you that there are three of your members who have an unquestioned right to serve on the new tourist committee of the Ad Club. L. A. Thurston, A. H. Ford and H. Gooding Field. Using the power you have vested in me I have selected these as my co-workers.

Your committee is working along the line getting data which will be useful to the Promotion Committee of PETROGRAD, Russia, Nov. 5 .- As a bringing into perfect unison and cooperation those bodies and men mostly interested in meeting the tourist, and making him feel that he is a welcome man and brother rather than a mere source of revenue. Our first step has Everywhere the German defensive been in conjunction with the trail and Mountain Club to inaugurate weekend dollar-a-day excursions to parts of Oahu with which the stranger is not likely to be familiar, and alas, and unfortunately, with which, as a rule, our own people are unfamiliar.

On our first trip, which was to Kan-cohe Bay, there were sixteen in the party; some kamaianas, some malihinis and some tourists. We all became friends and co-workers before the day was over. Our second trip, last Sunday, was to Koko Head. It took two auto busses and an automobile to carry the party, for many of those in the original party had got the idea, and invited visitors in town to join our "See-Oahu-First" week-end trips,

One of our Ad Club members was so pleased with our work that he contributed $100 to begin the work on one of our rest houses. We have not succeeded in capturing any of the ten-dollar-a-day tourists for our trips, and we think he must be a rare bird; but there are many visitors in Honolulu who are spending $6 a day, and some of them less, whose company we find congenial, and they seem to like us. Some of these have already gone on the trips with us, and indicate their intention of remaining longer than they intended, and one or two express their in-tention of locating here, now that they are becoming acquainted with the people. Your tourist committee trusts that it will accomplish more than mere tourist work. It hopes to interest those who come to Hawaii that are good fellows, to remain in Hawati, for one man who will spend even $3 a day for three hundred and sixtyfive days in the year is better than several who spend $10 a day for ten days, and then go away. The committee invites any member of the Ad Club who wishes to join any of the Saturday and Sunday parties, to notify any member of our committee, and we will try to assist him in getting up the party and arranging for the excursion to the portion of the country which he and his friends wish to ex-If any member of the Ad Club has visitor he wishes entertained in this way, we shall be pleased to have him with our parties, and we would suggest that members make it a point to become acquainted with some tourist or visitor in town and entertain him in this way, for not only will the visi-NEW YORK, N.
